Proclamation Margaret Golden

WHEREAS, in January 1993 Margaret Golden was hired as a Technical Services and Reference Librarian; and,

WHEREAS, Margaret held that position until promoted to Assistant Director in September of 1999; and,

WHEREAS, during her employment, Margaret oversaw the transition from a physical card catalog and manually checking out items to an integrated automated Library System which she repeated when the library migrated to a new system in 2007; and,

WHEREAS, Margaret managed Library Technology and was methodical in maintaining all computer hardware and software with great diligence in order to provide accuracy and to keep things current. In addition to maintaining the library website, she also provided assistance for the Town's website; and,

WHEREAS, Margaret believed that the patrons were her first priority and she provided excellent reference services for which she received much recognition from the patrons and Library Director and staff. Her excellent work ethic was a role model to all; and,

WHEREAS, Margaret supported fundraising for the Library through the Car Donation Program which raised funds for the library renovation and new computers through the years; and,

WHEREAS, Margaret retired in January of 2021 after 27 years of exemplary service to the Library and to the Town of New Fairfield; and,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Patricia Del Monaco, First Selectman of the Town of New Fairfield, on behalf of the Board of Selectmen and the citizens of New Fairfield, do hereby express our appreciation and gratitude to Margaret Golden for her outstanding service and years of dedication to the community. We extend our best wishes upon Margaret's retirement and wish her continued success in life's pursuits.

Patricia Del Monaco, First Selectman
