CORRESPONDENCE/ANNOUNCEMENTS:

OLD BUSINESS

1. Are You Living the Retirement You Imagined? With Dr. Nancy Humphreys

The motto for this program is “You are Never Too Young to Start to Plan and Never Too Old to Change Course”. Dr. Humphreys will speak about the quality of life and redefine retirement. Maureen Salerno has spoken with several churches in Town as well as the Knights of Columbus and the Lions Club. All groups were very welcoming and she asked that if they drive someone, to please stay. Discussion followed on the stipend for Dr. Humphreys. The program will be held on Saturday March 12 from 10:30am to 12:30pm and refreshments will be served. Discussion focused on who will bring in refreshments. Kathy Hull will contact Ray Juskiewicz to see if he can put this on Channel 17 as well as video tape it. Kathy Hull will also make sure there is a podium and a microphone for Dr. Humphreys. If John Hodge is not available to give the welcoming speech, then Susan Chapman will.

2. The Cost of Aging, Who Pays and How:

To date 4 of the 6 sponsors have submitted donations in the suggested amount. Katy Johannssen will follow up with Glen Hill. Ridgefield VNA was wondering if they can provide a service in lieu of a donation. Discussion followed a donation would be best. Currently the sponsors are:

- Bethel Health Care
- Candlewood Valley Health and Rehab
- The Gardens Assisted Living
- Ridgefield VNA
- Village Crest

The Presenters are:

- Tom Asheton, Senior Specialty Realtor
- Kathy Hull New Fairfield Senior Center Directors
- Barbara Reynolds, Elder Law Attorney
- Cindy White, New Fairfield Director of Social Services

The Commission will look into the cost of finger foods such as sandwiches, cheese trays, chips/dips and veggies. The sponsors will have tables set up around the perimeter of the room. Further discussion focused on getting name plates for the sponsors and presenters. Kathy Hull will put a "Save the Date" into the monthly newsletter that goes out next week.

3. COA Membership Update:

Katy Johannssen was re-appointed from an alternate position to a full member. Jeannette Sweeney, Cindy LaCour, and Kathy Hull were also reappointed to their current positions. There are 2 Alternate positions open. Discussion followed on party rules.

4. Older Americans Month:

May is Older Americans Month. The Commission discussed possible candidates which included centenarians and the award would go to everyone over the age of 100. Discussion focused it would be important to include everyone in that category and ways to contact them.
