Selectmen's Office
New Fairfield, Connecticut

Proclamation Pamela J. Dohan

WHEREAS, on January 6, 2014, Pamela J. Dohan was elected New Fairfield's Town Clerk; and,

WHEREAS, Pamela was elected to the position of Town Clerk for an additional term in 2018, serving in that capacity for a total of 8 years; and,

WHEREAS, Pamela served as Assistant Town Clerk for the Town of New Fairfield for 10 years; and,

WHEREAS, Pamela, during her tenure as New Fairfield Town Clerk, spearheaded the successful protection of the Town of New Fairfield's records and the integrity of national and local elections while navigating the Global Pandemic; and,

WHEREAS, Pamela has been a lifelong resident of New Fairfield, where she raised her three children; Amanda, Gregory and Matthew with her husband Nicholas Dohan; and,

WHEREAS, Pamela has served on numerous boards for religious organizations in the Town of New Fairfield; and,

WHEREAS, Pamela will retire on January 3, 2022 after 18 years of commendable dedication to the Town of New Fairfield; and,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Patricia Del Monaco, First Selectman of the Town of New Fairfield, on behalf of the Board of Selectmen and the citizens of New Fairfield, do hereby express our appreciation and gratitude to Pamela J. Dohan for her outstanding service and years of dedication to the community. We extend our best wishes upon Pam's retirement and wish her continued success in life's pursuits.

Proclamation Ed Sbordone

WHEREAS, on June 19, 2006 Ed Sbordone was hired to join the Town of New Fairfield Finance office as an Accounts Payable Clerk; and,

WHEREAS, on July 2, 2007 Ed was promoted to Accounting Manager of the Finance Department; and,

WHEREAS, on March 13, 2017 Ed was promoted to Finance Director and was voted in by the people of New Fairfield as Treasurer on November 9, 2019; and,

WHEREAS, Ed is a methodical and extremely organized professional whose detailed knowledge of all Town financial matters drew the utmost respect from all of his co-workers; and,

WHEREAS, during his tenure, Ed maintained the Town's AAA bond rating and preserved the Town's healthy fund balance; and,

WHEREAS, over the past several years, Ed led the successful financial software conversion to E-Finance+, working endless hours alongside his staff to complete the transition for both the Town and the Board of Education; and,

WHEREAS, in addition to his duties as Finance Director and Treasurer, Ed also served our community as a member of the Board of Education and Permanent Building Committee, and attended every Board of Selectmen and Board of Finance meeting; and,

WHEREAS, during COVID, Ed ensured that the Finance Department provided seamless financial support to the Town and BOE, and also assumed the responsibility for receiving and distributing all outside mail to our schools and Town departments; and,

WHEREAS, Ed is an avid fan of the New York Rangers and proudly displayed his jersey on his office wall, and is also a lifelong fan of the Dallas Cowboys, much to the dismay of his staff but who happily celebrated two NY Giant Super Bowls during his tenure; and,

WHEREAS, Ed is highly respected and well-liked by his staff and will be sorely missed;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Patricia Del Monaco, First Selectman of the Town of New Fairfield, on behalf of the Board of Selectmen and the citizens of New Fairfield, do hereby express our appreciation and gratitude to Ed Sbordone for his 16 years of exemplary service and years of dedication to the Finance Department, and the Town of New Fairfield. We extend our best wishes upon Ed's retirement and wish him continued success in life's pursuits.
