

First Amendment to Use Agreement

The foregoing provision shall serve as an Amendment to a certain Use Agreement dated March 29, 2019 by and between the Town of New Fairfield (the "Town") and the Hahlawah Sporting Club, Inc., a corporation organized and existing under the laws of the State of Connecticut (the "Club").

2. Current Usage. The Club has constructed the Range in accordance with generally accepted guidelines for shooting ranges published by the National Rifle Association("NRA"). The Club has conducted various Club functions at the Range, including but not limited to shooting of firearms, training classes, and meetings. The shooting hours are from 10:10AM to 12:30PM on Sunday (the "Current Usage"). Range usage is limited to Club members and supervised guests with the average number of attendees each Sunday being approximately 16. The Range is conducted according to safety rules and practices which meet or exceed NRA guidelines. Under the terms of this Agreement, the Club may continue the Current Usage of the Range as described in this paragraph. Notwithstanding, the Current Usage, the Club may conduct extended hours of formal training and instruction under the following conditions:

1. Such training shall be for the purpose of enhancing the safe use of weapons by residents.

2. Dates for each training session shall be approved by the Board of Selectmen and shall be limited to no more than two days per year with hours running between 9AM and 6PM (the "Extended Training"),

3. Residents of New Fairfield and law enforcement officers shall be given priority in registration for such training classes on no more than six (6) days per calendar year on days and hours of outside the Current Usage (the "Extended Training").

Upon approval of the Board of Selectmen, an additional session of Extended Training may be added, if there is sufficient demand among New Fairfield residents. ~~When Extended Training is scheduled, the Club shall give Notice to the Town not less than thirty (30) days prior to the commencement of the Extended Training session(s).~~
