Public Comment

Steve Hanrahan spoke of concerns with not enough notice or advertisements for the referendum vote scheduled for October 18th for the use of the ARPA funds. First Selectman Pat Del Monaco explained the rules and regulations for warning a referendum and noted that proper notice was given in this situation. Selectman Khris Hall noted that information regarding the projects is available in the Library, Town Hall and the Senior Center. There was an explanation of the eligibility of ARPA funds.

Correspondence and Announcements

Pat Del Monaco noted that the $2.1 million grant request for the replacement of the radio system for New Fairfield is currently waiting to be voted out of subcommittee for the House of Representatives. It is likely that New Fairfield will receive this grant. The entire BOS thanked State Representative Jahana Hayes for all her help with this grant.
